THUNE was published June 10, 1713, to MARY WATERS of Marblehead, while in the Marblehead Marriages appears this record, "George Bethune of Boston and Mrs.

Mary Waters Je 3 [30] 1713." MARY WATERS was the eldest daughter of WILLIAM and ELIZABETH (LATIMER) WATERS (192) of Marblehead, Mass. She was born February 25, 1691/2, and baptized at Marblehead, April 24, 1692. Further confirmation of the marriage was found in the Essex Deeds where George BETHUNE of Boston deeded property, September 10, 1722, to Nathaniel Norden, MARY WATERS' uncle, to settle the estate which Nathaniel Norden held in his own right, and which, on his decease, was to go to Latimer Waters (MARY's brother) and his heirs. In default of such heirs it was to go to the next of kin of Latimer's deceased mother, ELIZABETH (LATIMER) WATERS (192). There is also another deed of September 14, of the same year, in which Nathaniel Norden, of Marblehead, "for love of his kinswoman Mary wife of Geo. Bethune," deeded to her a certain house "now in possession of Benjamin Stacy called The Three Codds Tavern." The same year, 1722, GEORGE and MARY (WATERS) BETHUNE received in the division of the estate of Christopher Latimer (193), Mary's grandfather, a share with other heirs named, in two dwellings which were a part of the estate. There are also other records in connection with this estate in which their names appear GEORGE BETHUNE lived in Boston and in 1723 bought land there. In 1726 in a further, and perhaps final distribution of Christopher Latimer's estate, he and his wife received one-half and Latimer Waters, Mary's brother, the other. The discovery of all these deeds places it beyond doubt that George Bethune came to this country in 1710, instead 1724, and that he married MARY WATERS, June 30, 1713.

cember 18, 1727, he bought of Daniel Law "the sloop Mayslower all ready for a

He was undoubtedly engaged to some extent in the shipping trade, as, De-voyage to Honduras." He was one of the members of the Scottish Charitable Society of Boston. In 1732 he was justice of the peace and was guardian of Francis Borland, son of John Borland. The date of his death is not known, but it was probably in 1735, as an inventory of his estate was taken in Boston, February 20, 1735/6.
